Mean Doses Brewery & Fillery	Mean Tropical IPA	IPA	IPA	6.7	51	From the people who brewed you Mean Tropical Stout and the tired, hungover copywriter who brought you the notes for... Mean Tropical Stout. Comes this latest addition to the Mean Doses Tropical beer universe: MEAN TROPICAL IPA. This winter... get ready to have everything you thought you knew about Dean's beer confirmed - because if you liked it before, you'll definitely like it this time. Starring: Pineapple and Mango Flavours, Stone Fruit Undertones, and a hazy IPA brewing technique that might result in a hazy beer or might not - we just don't know yet.
Mean Doses Brewery & Fillery	Mean Red IPA	Hoppy Red Ale	IPA	6.5	55	Flavour notes for this one go: "mahogany goodness with mango, melon and mandarin on the nose, and pineapple..." - ah, whatever, I don't have my reading glasses and Dean's handwriting is hard to decipher. I think it says "raisin and pine flavours"? Hmm. I've never been good at identifying all these little fruit tastes, maybe people just make all that stuff up? I get more of a caramel thing from it. Anyway it's awesome - personally, this one is my favourite.
Mean Doses Brewery & Fillery	Mean IPA	IPA	IPA	6.7	60	Because you need an IPA, don't you? You do. I mean a brewery needs an IPA, sure, that's just basic business sense. But you, the people, you need this too. This IPA is deep and golden, it has all kinds of citrus in it, but also with a clean, balanced bitterness. It's like a balm for your weary soul. I have seen people cheer up, very quickly, upon tasting this IPA (true story).
Mean Doses Brewery & Fillery	Mean Porter on NITRO	Brown Porter	Porter	5	30	This one is easy going (NB a porter, not a stout). It's sessionable, you've got a mild thing happening here; bittersweet, a bit chocolate-y. You could take this beer to a sick relative. You could drink responsible amounts of this while looking after other people's children. It's that kind of beer.
Mean Doses Brewery & Fillery	Mean Bassline Sessions Vol. 3	Chardonnay Barrel Aged Spiced Imperial Red Ale	Other	8	40	Collaboration with Bassline Brewing who will be pouring Vol. 2, a Pinot Noir Barrel Aged Spiced Imperial Red Ale.
Mean Doses Brewery & Fillery	Mean Velvet	Doppelbock	Lager	9.7	22	Confused about doppelbocks? I get that. There are far too many varieties of craft beer these days. Well don't worry, I have your Cliff's Notes right here. A bock is defined as "a strong lager of German origin". A doppelbock is therefore two of these. A Mean Velvet is defined as "a topaz-ruby-esque beer, of complex and wonderful sweetness". Remember, when you drink this beer - which is in fact two beers - you will become mathematically twice as happy as you would have if you had drunk anyone else's beer. Science.
Mean Doses Brewery & Fillery	Mean Bounty	Chocolate, Coconut & Raspberry Brown	Brown Ale	5.5	20	Welcome aboard the HMS Mean Bounty. As you might have guessed, it's generally about the chocolate and coconut (which is possibly a fruit), and this Raspberry Horizon edition is all about the raspberry (definitely a fruit). It's yummy, it's brown, it's lighter than a stout and - wait, why are you even still reading this?

North End Brewing	Beach Hoist	West Coast IPA	IPA	6.5	27.5	Our American style India Pale Ale started out as a collaboration with a legendary brewer from Oregon in the North West United States. We took the American IPA style and substituted American varieties of hops for New Zealand grown ones. We have tweaked the recipe and made it our own. The result is fruity, and resinous with a smooth malt backbone and a lingering bitter finish.
North End Brewing	Petit Luna	Saison	Saison	2.5	2.7	Just because something is small doesn't mean it won't pack a punch. The little, delicate, dried flowers of the hibiscus plant are a case in point as they lend a pungent, fruity character, and deep pink colour when added to beer. The same can be said of Petit Luna. Hibiscus, kaffir lime, spicy Belgian yeast, and lactic tartness all brew up to a big refreshing blast of flavour fired by a light, low alcohol beer.

North End Brewing	Baby Grand	Flanders Red	Other	6	5	The Red Ales of Flanders are the balsamic emperors of Belgian beer. Tart, complex and deeply fruity they are the product of long slow aging in wooden barrels. Baby Grand takes inspiration from Flanders and from the Bordeaux style wines of the Hawkes Bay resulting in a tart deeply fruity complex beer aged for 18th months in French oak cabernet sauvignon barrels.
North End Brewing	Saison de Terroir	Wild Saison	Saison	6.5	20	French winemakers use the word 'terroir' to describe the influence of the local environment on the wines that they make. We have helped add a big dose of 'terroir' into this beer by taking our Saison and re-fermenting it in barrels with a blend of wild yeasts from Waikanae. The result is tangy, lightly tart and extremely fruit
Panhead Custom Ales	Lube Nube	IPA	IPA	6.7		The heady stench of Simcoe, Mosaic and Sabro flare the nostrils and prime your tongue for the onslaught of tropical fruit and eyeball popping, tongue wrenching bitterness, approach always with caution and or gas money.
Panhead Custom Ales	Tyre Fryer	Pale Ale	Pale Ale	5.4		The hop gods spoke and the coveted Sabro was clutched. Some sacrifice animals, others build shrines, we get trackside and shred tread. Hear our primal scream, swim through the plume, search the scorched earth and behold the blown 'Stones, the ultimate acknowledgement of our gift from above, high in the mountains of New Mexico.
Panhead Custom Ales	Doh Nutter	Hoppy Lager	Lager	4.8		Mesmerising are the centrifugal forces of asphalt artists committing circle work to their bitumen canvas. Guzzle one for these diff damaging squeally pigs, and brake and pedal jugglers, wreckless rotators scribing vehicular Venn diagrams with rear-wheel righteousness. May their tyre temps forever rise.
Panhead Custom Ales	Motor Mouth	Watermelon Sour	Sour	4.7		To all the jabber-jaws forever revved, running hot, blowing smoke out the wazoo, emitting combustible transmissions, leaving sour notes in the gizzards of the gathered. Banter bandits melting faces with real torque. Living for shock without absorption. Making ruckus til it's time to kick buckets. Please, motor on.
Panhead Custom Ales	Wham Bam Thank You Nam	Vietnamese Coffee	Specialty	8		Pours jet black with a lovely espresso crema on top. Big coffee character (What did you bloody expect?) and more subtle dark chocolate and lots of vanilla are there as well. A super-rich, creamy body helped along by Nitro, feels so good in your mouth.
Panhead Custom Ales	Rat Rod	Hazy IPA	IPA	6.5		Pouring a cloudy gold with a thick creamy head. This beer is like being smashed in the face with a bowl of fruit salad and probably contains your 5+ A Day (however, there is no scientific evidence of this).
Panhead Custom Ales	Batch 076 Bruxellensis Brut	Brut IPA	IPA	7		Pouring very pale with a spritzzy effervescence (yes we know some fancy words, this is the champagne of beers after all). The finishing gravity is below 1000 which means it has no residual sugar and is very dry. Huge fruity aroma coming from both the hops and yeast. A very light mouthfeel is followed by some alcohol warmth a gentle acidity and a lingering light spice. Oo la la.

The Fermentist	IPA	IPA	IPA	5.8	48	We have tried something different with this IPA. We worked with NZ Hops Ltd. and used a new trial hop for late and dry hopping. If you were lucky you will have tried this beer is our small batch fermentEST tap range. Our IPA has great malt body and the hopping with the hop trial creates a wonderfully vibrant beer. The IPA style is the perfect beer for this hop to be the star of the show, displaying high levels of tropical fruit character including passionfruit, stone fruits and citrus.	PINK BOOTS SOCIETY

Renaissance Brewing Co	Brut IPA	Brut IPA	IPA	6.5	18	"This dry, refresher of a beer was brewed with a relatively simple malt bill of ale malt and a touch of cara hell, designed to showcase the distinctive hop profile of Moutere, Pacifica, Motueka with just a touch of Zythos for a real tropical hit. Our goal throughout fermentation was to produce a balanced, effervescent malty dryness with a massive tropical aroma. Spritzzy, dry and delicious! "
Renaissance Brewing Co	Espresso Beertini	Baltic Porter	Porter	7.7	20	In collaboration Harpoon Coffee this is Renaissance's homage to the Espresso Martini... but with beer. And probably way less basic. Brewed for GABS 2019.
Renaissance Brewing Co	1000th Brew Heritage	Imperial Porter	Porter	9.4	44	Renaissance 1000th brew was expertly crafted by six of NZ's finest brewers - all of whom worked their craft at Renaissance Brewery some past some present. Heritage boasts almost a dozen malts, coupled with; Apollo, Southern Cross, Pacific Jade and Nelson Sauvin hops. All of which are blended to produce a rich, toasty and decadent brew. The aroma is of coffee and toffee with a hint of dark fruit. Your taste- buds can expect a roasted nutty, maple character with a full bodied mouth-feel, and a soft lingering bitterness
Renaissance Brewing Co	Stonecutter	Peated Scotch ale	Scotch Ale	7	8	Multi award winning Stonecutter Scotch Ale is the big, hearty, 'red wine' of our range. The Scotch Ale style is believed to have originated in Edinburgh in the 18th century and is colloquially known as "wee heavy" due to its higher strength than its paler siblings. We use nine malts blended together to produce layers of caramel, toffee, liquorice, chocolate and roasty flavours. These layers are balanced by a tart, raisiny fruitiness that gradually gives way to give this dark beer a lingering dry finish.
Renaissance Brewing Co	Big Ripa	Red IPA	IPA	6.1	50	This brew pours a brownish-red with deep ruby windows when the light shines through it. The beer was made for the NZ IPA challenge and focuses on New Zealand hop varieties. The malts have a high proportion of Munich and red malts to yield the lovely reddish colour and form a malt base to hang the hop flavours on. The hops focus on the NZ varieties Kohatu, Motueka, & Taiheke as well as the new research strain Hort 9909. The nose is citrus and tropical fruit hop aromas with undertones of caramel malts. The taste is emphatically hoppy with hop resins coating the tongue. The hop notes of citrus, tropical fruit, and pine dominate with a hint of malt sweetness as an undertone.
Renaissance Brewing Co	Renaissance Lager	European Lager	Lager	4.5	15	As a nation of intrepid people, New Zealanders are great at working together to create new things. The same can be said of the country's brewers who over the last decade have collaborated to create an exciting, vibrant industry. Renaissance Lager is our celebration of New Zealand flavours and a tribute to the everyday kiwi. This beer is a nice easy drinking lager that exhibits a subtle malt base laced with a slight tropical hop undertone, a great everyday beer.
Renaissance Brewing Co	Bandwagon	West Coast Hazy IPA	IPA	8.5		It's not about being first, it's about doing it better! We are jumping on this hazy bandwagon with a big bold hop bomb. This is a big juicy beer loaded with American hops for a big tropical hit and lingering bitterness for all the hop lovers.
Renaissance Brewing Co	Chili Wit	Wit beer	Belgian Ale	5.2		Chili hit ahead! with coriander and Blood Oranges added during the boil to harmonise the flavour. Special yeast is used to give it a unique look and flavour. Odyssey is a hazy white beer
Renaissance Brewing Co	Cheery Drop	Kettle Sour	Berliner Weisse	4		This beer is a kettle-soured cherry Berliner Weisse and is our first soiree into sour beers. The beer has a tantalising refreshing dry finish, the Cherry will dance on your taste buds like a ballerina elegantly twirling to the sounds of swan lake, that is sure to see you coming back for more!
Renaissance Brewing Co	Discovery APA	APA	American Pale Ale	4.5	28	Honeyed characters and the subtle hop flavours lead to slightly sweet finish on the palate. As with all our beers, we believe that Discovery's flavours can be enjoyed with foods as well as on their own, we recommend that this beer matches well with the hot spiced dishes.
Renaissance Brewing Co	Voyager IPA	IPA	IPA	6	60	Inspired by the boldly hoppy Ales of old that were exported from Britain to the furthest corners of her vast and glorious empire, Voyager I.P.A. is a rich satisfying Ale with an emphatic hop bite. We brew this beer with pale ale malt from Canterbury, and small additions of European specialty malts to yield a malt base on which to build its hop edifice. We generously hop it with Kiwi hop varieties for bitterness then finish it with Fuggles (as a nod to I.P.A.'s British origin) and New Zealand bred Riwaka hops for a spicy floral finish. The result is an ale that will coat your palate with hops and it will leave you in no doubt that you have had a beer! It is just as good carbonated and chilled as it was when it was flat and warm!

Te Aro Brewing Co	Credence	Russian Imperial Stout	Imperial Stout	12	80	Visitors to our homebrew shop, Brewtopia, when it was based in Tory St might have noticed a Bourbon barrel in the middle of the shop floor. This barrel contained a Russian Imperial Stout with an ambitious target ABV of 22%. Well, a couple of flaws in that plan - fermentation stopped about the 16% mark (super boozy but also super sweet) and we had to move the barrel to the new digs in Upper Hutt. As luck would have it, we had a few barrels of RIS already aging in Upper Hutt so we blended them all together and then filled the barrels again.

A medium-dry finish provides an aftertaste having a balance of both malt and hops. In the dry-hopping process, we have used American Columbus cryo-hops that are twice as concentrated and reduce waste compared to hop pellets. This is an exception to our philosophy of using NZ hops, however, the decision comes from our sustainable values.
The Fermentist	Black Lager	Black Lager	Lager	4.4	41	Deep ruby tones bean from this Black Lager like a mystical dark orb. Rich chocolate aroma combines with subtle fruity notes born from a New Zealand dry hop addition. Intriguingly smooth and mid dry balance finishes to lingering roasted malts.

Yeastie Boys	Pottle Kettle Black	South Pacific Porter	Porter	6		Fresh & hoppy, yet rich & black. Mind-bendingly delicious and a true original. Our flagship beer, and biggest seller, Pot Kettle Black is one of New Zealand's most widely awarded beers. PKB, as it is affectionately known, is a juxtaposition of beer styles: fresh and hoppy, yet as dark as night and malty rich. The black beer that has converted many a person who'd formerly professed a fear of dark ales... and called a "real foodie beer" by every chef we meet!
Yeastie Boys	Gunnamatta Earl Grey IPA	Earl Grey IPA	IPA	6.5		A modern cult classic inspired by the Pale Ales that travelled from England to the East Indies and, perhaps more importantly, all that precious tea that returned on those same ships. Yeastie Boys' Gunnamatta utilises judicious amounts of Earl Grey Blue Flower tea to generate an intoxicating floral and citrus aroma with the quenching dry finish of an ice tea. A truly unique new world India Pale Ale with a decidedly old world twist. Boldly floral nose – much like your granny's bedroom - with stone fruit and citrus flavours and a long dry finish.
Yeastie Boys	Whitenoise	White Beer	Witbier	4.4		A delicate session-strength beer with hints of orange blossom, coconut, vanilla and a refreshingly dry finish. A quaffable, cloudy white ale that is perfect for those afternoon sessions after a hard day's work or play. Pours a cloudy pale straw colour with a dense mousse-like white head. A perfumy coconut and vanilla note on the nose, with a little citrus and spice, and breadly grains from the wheat. The mouthfeel is full for such a pale beer, but still very light and elegant. The beer finishes with a cleansing acidity, a faint spicy note and only the mildest touch of citrus from the virtually non-existent hops.
